

There are many different types of music in the world today. Why do we need music? Is the traditional music of a country more important than the international music that is heard everywhere nowadays?

The numbers of people who listen to music everyday, the number of music channels, the number of singers... are increasing. This fact is the proof for the importance of music. So why do we need music? Let's imagine what would happen if there weren't music. We couldn't have an effective method to relax after our hard working day. We would lose one of the best favourites of many, many people all over the world. Without music, the world would be a silent and boring place. Moreover, music is also a common language for all human beings regardless of nationalities. Therefore, I can confirm that we couldn't live well if music didn't exist.

Nowadays, there are more and more different types of music. Beside traditional music, there is international music that is heard everywhere. Of course, we can't deny that international music is very popular, it contacts people. It plays an important role in improving understanding among countries. However, traditional music is still more significant than international music because of two following reasons:

Comment: Don't copy sentences from the task

Comment: connects

Firstly, traditional music is a works of many generations in a country. It rooted from long, long time ago and is being developed. It contains the soul, the features and the characteristics of one nation. We can say traditional music is a invaluable treasure of every country.

Comment: work

Secondly, traditional music is one of the ways to distinguish nations. Nowadays, when the world is being globalized dramatically, to integrate but not dissolve, we must keep and respect our traditional valuations. And one of them is music.

Comment: rapidly globalizes

In conclusion, also there are many kinds of music today but traditional music is still very important, what we must do is keep it for our future generations.

Comment: inappropriate use of connecting word

Comment: and we must keep it

Good essay, Band 6 +, all task points are covered; here are some suggestions for improvement:

- Make the introduction paragraph (1) smaller, give all the arguments in the body paragraphs (2,3, 4).
- Don't use connective words where they don't belong and don't overuse them (like you did in the introduction paragraph)
- Don't copy sentences from the task – you loose points for that
