

There are many different types of the music in the world today. Why do we need music? Is the traditional music of a country more important than the international music that is heard everywhere nowadays?

Write at least 250 words

Music has become a part of human life. It is a friend of good time, whether we are in happy or sad moments.

Comment: experiencing

When we are happy, we need music because it is only the thing that give us company. For example, when we cheer up, we go to the dance party and celebrate the moments. We dance and enjoy with the music. Can we imagine our life without music? Of course not. In addition, music has become a medium to pass time. For instance, people go to theaters, music stadium to pass their time so as they do not feel lonely. Moreover, if we feel sad, we listen to the music to minimize our sadness, to forget the unhappy moments too.

Comment: because it is the only thing that gives us company

Comment: For example, when we cheer up, dance and enjoy the music

Comment: to theaters, and music stadiums

So music plays an important role in each and every step of human life. We cannot imagine our life without the aid of music. I do not agree with the argument that the international music is more important than traditional music because traditional music shows our culture and tell us who we are. It also aids to remember our past events too.

Comment: Thus

Comment: that international

To illustrate, folk music is the traditional music of Nepal. If any one who hears it, he/she remembers the culture of Nepal.

Comment: It reminds of the culture of Nepal to whoever hears it.

Secondly, traditional music is our identification. Folk music of Nepal indicates who we are and which country we belong to. In contrast, the international music does not.

Comment: contrast

In conclusion, traditional music is important for our own culture and identification although, international music are more popular nowadays.

Comment: our

This is a very good essay, well done. Well set out, the arguments are good and the word count excellent.