Sample Essay

Checked and graded by the Writing Correction Service at IELTS-Blog.com

Writing Task 2

Newspapers and magazines will not be available in the near future because large amounts of information from the internet will replace them. Do you agree or disagree? Give some examples from your own experience.

In this era, we can see how fast the information moves from one place to another. We can easily grab a newspaper, a magazine, or even browse the internet to find out the latest news. Some people believe that the presence of internet will eliminate the need of newspapers and magazines. Meanwhile, some others argue that all of them will never substitute each other.

The significant growth of internet has indeed brought priceless advantages to our life. Internet can provide us up-to-date news at an incredibly fast pace than any other conventional media like newspaper and magazine can achieve. Next on, by opting to gather news via the internet, we could help save our environment since we can reduce the number of resources used to produce the paper.

Meanwhile, looking at from another standpoint, first of all, it is really too-good-to-be-true to have everyone in this world reading news via the internet. In reality, there are still a lot of people out there who prefer to get information from newspaper and magazine. This has been caused by, but not limited to, the fact that reading news through the internet is too tiring since we have to keep our eyes staring at monitor over and over. Furthermore, we cannot also fully trust any information spread out in the internet as everyone can put up any news as they wish. That way, to some extent, the information printed in the magazine and newspaper seems to be more reliable since it has passed through a number of strict procedures.

In conclusion, nowadays everyone has a variety of choices to get the news and information. Therefore, all things considered, I believe that the role of magazine and newspaper will be irreplaceable for now and ever. I strongly convinced that they are more complementing than substituting Internet content.

Go to the next page to see the Evaluation Report.
Evaluation Report

Word count
303

Comments
Although the arguments presented by the candidate are relevant, the candidate’s position is unclear until the conclusion, as he/she has stated his/her opinions on both sides. The use of cohesive devices isn’t always appropriate. The task also shows some minor occasional errors in word choice. However, the candidate has exhibited good command of the language by maintaining grammatical range and accuracy to a great extent.

Estimated Band
6.5

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Task achievement</th>
<th>Coherence &amp; Cohesion</th>
<th>Lexical resource</th>
<th>Grammar and Accuracy</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>7</td>
<td>6</td>
<td>6</td>
<td>7</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Suggestions
Here are some guidelines for writing different types of task:

1. Avoid repetition of the same words over and over again (such as ‘magazines’ and ‘newspapers’). Substitute them with synonyms such as ‘press’, ‘offline media’, and so on.

2. Avoid overuse of connective words. An example of ‘what not to do’ is in your 3rd paragraph (‘Meanwhile, looking at..., first of all’).

3. Proofread your work after you’ve finished writing it. This is a great way of eliminating easy-to-find spelling and grammatical mistakes.

4. Watch out for the plural form use, in your work the ending ‘s’ (magazines, newspapers) was forgotten too many times.

Click here to have your essays checked: https://www.ielts-blog.com/check-your-ielts-writing/