Comments: Candidate's speech is well above 2 minutes. However, in real IELTS exam, IELTS examiner may not allow candidate to speak for more than 2 minutes. Candidate's sentence articulation is broadly correct. Her accent is neutral, but at some instances, pronunciation requires improvement. Candidate has answered all questions of the cue-card. Range of vocabulary is broad. Overall, task response is up to the mark.

Suggestions: Try finishing your reply in 1 minute and 50 seconds.

There is no need say "That's all". Closing sentences of any speech should be well articulated, thereby, giving your cur-card response a natural ending.

Practice using rich vocabulary words e.g. culture, profession, land of opportunities, fascination, tolerance, respect for human life, educated society, efficient legal system, first world country etc.
