Comments: Candidate has tried answering all questions of cue-card. She has delivered a speech which was well above 2 minutes. However, there were many anomalies in her speech. Although candidate's accent was neutral yet pronunciation was not up to the mark. There were many occasion where spoken word was not audible. Range of vocabulary was extremely narrow. It appeared as if candidate was falling short of words. She was unable to formulate proper sentences. Also, there were frequent pauses. Overall, candidate's response needs further improvements.

Suggestions: Avoid multiple repetitions (e.g. it's it's you know of of)

You are not certain about usage of "to" and "for". Do not use "to for" at the same time.

Practice using rich vocabulary words e.g. culture, profession, land of opportunities, fascination etc.
